

Season begins: The Draft

On May 12th the Senior Softball Managers gathered at the Warren Community Center to determine who would be on which team. The sometimes intense/sarcastic meeting had to address many issues but the most important issue was the draft. The team selection process is serious business for a season that will last until September 6 with a hundred guys from the ages of 70 to 96.

